

K-LOVE has been and I hope continues to be allowed to broadcast family friendly programing as it exists today it has helped me see how important family is to all of us. "So goes the family so goes the world"